

Maximilian Jager

K2, 26, 68159, Mannheim, Germany maximilian.jager@gess.uni-mannheim.de

RESEARCH INTERESTS

Financial Intermediation, Empirical Banking, Financial Stability, Financial Econometrics

EDUCATION

PhD, Economics
University of Mannheim, expected completion summer 2022
Thesis supervisors: Ernst-Ludwig von Thadden (primary), Sascha Steffen (secondary)

Master of Science with Honors, Economics
University of Regensburg, 2016
Majors: Econometrics, Financial Markets
Stay abroad: Universidad Carlos III de Madrid (2014/2015)

Bachelor of Science, Economics
University of Regensburg, 2013

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research assistant Monetary and Economic Department Bank for International Settlements, Basel	February-August 2019
Research assistant Monetary and Economic Department Bank for International Settlements, Basel	June-September 2018
Research stay Financial Stability and Banking Supervision Division Deutsche Bundesbank, Frankfurt am Main	July-December 2017
Traineeship Macprudential Policy and Financial Stability Division European Central Bank, Frankfurt am Main	May-September 2016
Internships Financial Advisory, KPMG AG, Frankfurt am Main Securitization Division Bayerische Landesbank, Munich Financial Markets and Management Division, Centre for European Economic Research (ZEW), Mannheim	2012–2015

ACADEMIC WORK

Published and forthcoming papers
“Kicking the Can Down the Road: Government Interventions in the European Banking Sector”, joint with V. Acharya (NYU), L. Borchert (ZEW) and S. Steffen (Frankfurt School) - NBER Working Paper No. 27537; forthcoming at Review of Financial Studies

Working papers
“Implications of asymmetric information for bank funding costs and lending behaviour”, joint with S. Avdjiev (Bank for International Settlements)

“The Janus face of bank geographic complexity”, joint with I. Aldasoro and B. Hardy (both Bank for International Settlements) - BIS Working Paper No. 858; R&R at Journal of Banking and Finance

“Interbank Risk Assessment – A simulation approach”, joint with T. Siemsen (Bundesbank) and J. Vilsmeier (ECB) - Bundesbank Discussion Paper No. 23/2020

Work in progress

“Real Effects of Central Clearing Counterparties”, joint with F. Zadow (University of Mannheim)

CONFERENCES, Conference Presentations

SEMINARS AND WORKSHOPS IWH-CIREQ-GW Macroeconometric Workshop (poster + discussant), Spring Meeting of Young Economists 2017

Seminar Presentations

Workshop on Recent Developments in Banking Research (CRC TR 224), Bundesbank, Bank for International Settlements (2x)

Summer Schools and Workshops

”Central Clearing Counterparties” at LSE, ”Practical DSGE Models” by Fabio Canova

SCHOLARSHIPS PhD student scholarship, Stiftung Geld & Whrung, 2018-

AND AWARDS Scholarship for research stay abroad, DAAD, 2020-2021

Selected participant Lindau Nobel Laureates Meeting, 2020

DZ Bank career award finalist, 2017

Best master student in economics, University of Regensburg, 2016

Outstanding master thesis in economics or business, Christa-Lindner foundation, 2016

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant

October 2012 - March 2016

Statistics, Macroeconomics, Econometrics (all undergraduate)

University of Regensburg

Teaching Assistant

February 2018 - February 2019

Econometrics (undergraduate)

University of Mannheim

COMPUTER
SKILLS

R, Stata, E-Views, MATLAB, VBA, Python, JMulTi, SPSS

LANGUAGE SKILLS

English (fluent), German (mother tongue), Spanish (conversational)

EXTRA-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

Student representative, Organizer of Ph.D. student reading class, Instructor of university sports classes, Volunteer at the local animal shelter